

My comment concerns the propriety of Sinclair Broadcasting's requirement of its stations to run "Stolen Honor." This political activity seems inconsistent with fair stewardship of the public airwaves. I hope you will take this concern into account when

- 1) considering renewal of licenses
- 2) crafting policy in connection with ownership concentration
- 3) logging the losses in healthy political dialogue as a result of the disappearance of the fairness doctrine